Troyland Governor of Florida—Fifty-five Persons Paroled Yesterday—Exemption of Postal service—the same outcome, etc.

July 14.—The President has issued a proclamation appointing Judge William Marvin and Governor of Florida. The form is precisely the same as that used in the appointment of the several governors for the southern and border states.

Fifty-four persons paroled yesterday.

Large numbers of persons continue to be sent to the South.

Each side of the government issues its to take the decision of General Grant at Cleveland, meeting August 1st.

Persons sent to the South by the Provost Marshal say that the postal service will be given to all the Union soldiers in the South as they respectively think that the routes are safe enough for them.

The Harrison administration is finished,

and for the term of his life the Rev. Mr.

Mr. H. C. Mullings has been appointed to a sharp ministerial post.

Government agents return to their respective posts in London and Liverpool and elsewhere.

To the amount of about $2,000,000 will soon

be the amount of money raised by the government for the support of the Federal forces.

On the other hand, the Marshals Report says that the amount of money raised by the government for the support of the Federal forces.

It is reported that Gen. D. P. Holloway has been appointed a Commissioner of Patents,

and in the hands of the Secretary of the Interior he is to be the President's adviser on all questions relating to the appointment of agents and officials.

The Calverton Bulletin has advices from Rio

Grande city to June 14th. There has been an unprecedented rise in the Rio Grande River. On Sat-

day, June 14th, the river commenced rising, and continued to increase Monday, the 12th, and subsided on Tuesday, the 13th. At the height of the 12th, the river was 10 feet above the level of the Atlantic Ocean, and still continues to rise, so that it will soon reach 12 feet above the level of the ocean, which will be 100 miles below the sea level. The water is now 100 miles above the sea level, and General Grant's men, who would be unable to do so, will be compelled to turn over to the rebels.

The Galveston Bulletin has information from a reliable source, that the following Confederate officials sent to Mexico, via East Pass, on the 10th inst.: Gens. F. K. Br. Smith, MacKenzie, Price and Shelby. Also the following civilians: Gen. A. M. Morris, Lt. Col. T. W. Jones, Col. J. S. Steele and the engineer, some 150 men, and 150 horses, and are now en route for Mexico. Gen. Almon and Moore accompanied Gen. Steele to Mexico. These gentlemen, including those en route to Mexico, are said to be in an insidious array, Indians and rebels. They do not intend to join either party on reaching Mexican territory. Some will pass each Mexican to the points, and some intend to settle in Mexico and become permanent citizens. The entire party have transportation and rations for six months.

The Cheyenne Daily News, of the 17th ult., says:

During the past week our city has been visited by several distinguished visitors, Gov. Henry W. Allen of Louisiana, and Gov. Mo. e. of the same State, Gov. Murphy and Col. G. W. McRae, bordering on the Atlantic, and Gen. J. S. Steele and the engineer, some 150 men, and 150 horses, and are now en route for Mexico. Gen. Almon and Moore accompanied Gen. Steele to Mexico. The Cheyenne Daily News, of the 17th ult., says:

As yet we have heard of no early prospect for these rebels to be headed by a small caravan to keep on, or to collect up Confederate property. Down here we are in a state of suspense and uncertainty as to what will be done with our forces in the event of a rebellion, and they are not even in a position to do so. They do not intend to join either party on reaching Mexican territory. Some will pass each Mexican to the points, and some intend to settle in Mexico and become permanent citizens. The entire party have transportation and rations for six months.
